Brian:

Could you please give Sandi an update on when she should expect additional sample.

Thanks,

Jim

Hi Jim,

I hope this finds you well.

I was wondering if we would be expecting more surveys this week or next?

We have called the surveys we have and have some completed.

However, we know that there will probably be surveys coming that "our respondents" are responsible for as well and it's always helpful to be able to group them together so we can get as many done as possible in 1 or 2 calls rather than having to do call them repeatedly.

If you could let us know when to expect more that would be great.

Thanks,
Sandi
